

Driving Classes for Friesian Horses

On 20th September 2009 the Friesian Horse Association of Great Britain and Ireland (FHAGBI) are holding the official Friesian horse inspection at the Laurel View equestrian centre in Ballyclare.

Some of the finest Friesian horses in Ireland will be on display in the morning, being inspected by Jury members of the Friesch Paarden Stamboek in the Netherlands. The afternoon program includes, for the very first time, driving classes specifically for Friesians. Anyone wishing to enter their horse in the driving classes should return the entry form no later than the 1st of September, together with an entrance fee of £6 per horse (members) and £8 per horse (non-members)

The classes are not only open to Friesian horses belonging to members of FHAGBI, but are also open to non-members with Friesian horses and also open to un-registered Friesian horses.

There will be classes for exercise / pleasure driving, private driving and multiples (pairs / tandem/ 4 in hand).
